STRATEGIC PLAN

Cuyahoga County Office of Emergency Management

Department of Public Safety & Justice Services | Ready.CuyahogaCounty.us

The Cuyahoga County Office of
EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT

Executive Summary

Situated in Northeast Ohio, Cuyahoga County is the most populated county in Ohio with 1.2 million residents and has a total area of 1,246 square miles. The County is home to billions of dollars in infrastructure and is a center of transportation, health care, education, manufacturing, and commerce. A range of natural, human-caused, and technological hazards threaten the County.

The Cuyahoga County Office of Emergency Management (CCOEM) works with the Whole Community to coordinate countywide preparedness, response, mitigation, and recovery efforts.

This Strategic Plan outlines five goals that establish strategic direction for CCOEM to fulfill its core mission of protecting lives, property and the economy of Cuyahoga County through preparedness, planning, and effective response to natural disasters, man-made catastrophes, and emergencies.

Goal 1: Improve preparedness of the Office of Emergency Management through planning, accreditation, certification, training, and participation in exercises.

Goal 2: Improve preparedness of municipal safety forces and public safety partners through training, exercises, information sharing, certification, and shared services.

Goal 3: Improve preparedness of County residents through innovative and proactive information sharing.

Goal 4: Enhance the resiliency of Cuyahoga County Government and its employees to withstand and recover from emergencies and hazards.

Goal 5: Improve Emergency Operations Center (EOC) facility readiness through EOC-specific planning, organizing, training, and exercising efforts

Overview

Cuyahoga County Office of Emergency Management

Review and Management

Plan Review

On a semi-annual basis, the CCOEM Manager will convene the Emergency Management Supervisors to review each goal, objective, and step within the Strategic Plan. Revisions and updates will be made based on project progress and changing conditions.

Performance Management

Many objectives in the 2017-2021 Strategic Plan include a time component for completion or continuous update. In order for the Strategic Plan to provide performance management, each Emergency Management Supervisor tracks progress of their assigned objectives. At minimum, at the end of each fiscal quarter, Emergency Management Supervisors will submit a report to the CCOEM Manager on the progress toward each goal, using the objectives and milestones.
